

THEME VERSE - Psalm 71:20

*“You who have made me see many troubles and calamities will revive me again;
from the depths of the earth You will bring me up again.*

Dear Congregational Representative,

Thank you for your interest in this year’s En Gedi Music Festival. We believe we have a really strong lineup for this year’s festival featuring Mandisa, Colton Dixon and Rhett Walker, BUT we are not all about the music. We serve a broader, higher mission, that is to excite and inspire all people to live as disciples of Christ. Within that mission resides the theme of this year’s festival: REVIVE. God is always REVIVING and we are in a constant need of God’s REVIVING work. Our goal with this year’s festival is to raise awareness of God’s REVIVING work and encourage participation in it. To that end we would love for your congregation to partner with us in the following four ways:

1. Engage your congregation in God’s REVIVING work and celebrate His work among His people at the festival. You may even join in the Theme Video Challenge and win tickets for 50 members of your congregation to next year’s festival.
2. Encourage members of your congregation to share the event with their friends and family and use it as a group retreat event for your families, team building opportunity, or Outreach Event For Your Church.
3. Promote the festival in your area using the Church Promo Tools. We need positive Christian activities for our members to attend and ways we can introduce others to Christ. To be perfectly honest, while we love hosting this festival, and know it’s value to our area, we can’t do it ourselves. It’s too big. We need your help.
4. Participate by getting involved. Maybe there is a way that your congregation could contribute to the festival by volunteering, sponsoring, or hosting a festival activity.

Still, the support we value most is your prayers. We do not want to do this festival. We want God to do this festival. May He be praised through all our efforts.

Finally, thank you for reading this all the way through. We value your time and ministry. May God be praise through you.

In Christ’s Service,

David Grimm
